Division of Student Affairs

The Counseling and Mental Health Center provides individual, group and crisis counseling, psychiatric consultations, and prevention services that facilitate students' academic and life goals.

New Student Services oversees orientation for thousands of incoming students each year, ensuring they successfully transition, both academically and socially, to the university. Staff also leads programs throughout the year to promote student engagement and support academic success.

The Office of the Dean of Students engages beyond the classroom to enrich learning through leadership training and by supporting the membership of more than 1,200 student organizations. Office services for students also include legal, conduct, emergency, veteran, research and other support.

Recreational Sports promotes physical fitness, healthy habits and balanced behaviors through an array of recreation facilities, programs, services, special events and student employment opportunities. Programs offered include Intramural Sports, Fitness/Wellness, Outdoor Recreation, Civic Engagement, Sport Clubs, the Instructional Program and Informal Recreation.

Texas Parents serves all students' families who need assistance navigating university resources. All parents and families of enrolled undergraduate students are members of the Texas Parents Association, the university's official parents association. Membership provides benefits to support and promote student success from enrollment through graduation.

The Center for Students in Recovery provides a supportive community where students in recovery and in hope of recovery can achieve academic success while enjoying a genuine college experience free from alcohol and other drugs.

University Health Services is an on-campus, accredited healthcare facility that includes general medicine, women's health, sports medicine, urgent care services, allergy/immunization clinics, nutrition services, physical therapy, a 24-hour Nurse Advice Line, radiology, lab services and a health promotion office.

University Housing and Dining oversees 14 on-campus residence halls, university apartments, and 13 dining and retail venues. By engaging students in an inclusive community that fosters learning outside the classroom, the staff encourages student success and well-being.

The University Unions provides a wide array of student services, leadership development opportunities, study and event spaces, and food venues. The department enhances the student experience through our unique and multi-faceted facilities as well as a vibrant student organization.
